☞ Baronial Business Meeting Minutes: June 11th ☞

Due to work obligations, the Chronicler was unable to attend the business meeting. Per the Seneschal, Duchess Esa, there was not a quorum and so no votes were held. Words from their Excellencies were shared by Baron Saphir.

Words from their Excellencies:

PENNSIC: Pre-reg (paid) closes 19 June. Please, if you are planning on camping with Barony, Lord Allen of Wolfhou (land agent) will need you to pre-reg paid, showing Stierbach as your camp. Then he'll need tent type, and size w/ropes. Camp fees will be worked out AFTER the final reg. date.

Please look out for a couple dates we hope you join us for: 1. Her Excellency and I will be once again providing the ice cream and sherbert for the Baronial Court & Ice Cream Social, Monday of war week 7 Aug @ TBA. Please bring toppings, and other desserts to share (w/ ingredients list)!

2. Please remember Opening Ceremonies! If you are available Sun 4 Aug @ 6pm we would love to have you process with us showing off the mighty Barony of Stierbach! We will follow-up in camp on times and where to muster! Banners, flags, banners!!

Finally 3. Baronial Progress: We will be attending Trial by Fire 15 June, and sharing Bright Hills' day shade and helping with their hospitality table, and Storvik Novice 29 June with Stierbach's day shade and hospitality table! Please, if attending, come and enjoy, bring something to share, and join our bardic champions serenading under the shade! Novice will be the last event for Karin and I, as we will be in preparation (both mundanely & SCAdianly) for Pennsic 48!! Oh and one more thing,

PLEASE SEND IN YOUR AWARD RECOMMENDATIONS FOR BOTH BARONIAL & KINGDOM. WE ALL KNOW SOMEBODY WHO DESERVES TO BE RECOGNIZED!!

See you out there, and be safe!

Next Business meeting: Tuesday July 19th, 2019, at Bethel Evangelical Lutheran Church.

✂ Missive: Baronial Birthday ✂

Greetings Stierbach,

Your Autocrat for our Baronial Birthday Event planned for 21 September here. Just wanted to put out the word that event planning is going very well. Many things are in motion that should result in success for our event, we have an awesome staff and they are all working hard.

The one area that I am appealing to aid for is kitchen clean up. Our own Blitha has volunteered to lead a team of 3-4 people from about 6 to 9ish PM to clean dishes during and post feast to ease the burden on our cooking staff and aid them in clean up and pack up. I just need the 3 other people to help her. If you are interested and available to aid in this effort, please contact me. Your help will be very much appreciated!

I also take the opportunity to remind you that we will be having a silent auction at our event with proceeds going to the Baronies general fund. Our own Lord Richard Wymarc (MKA) Timothy Mitchell will be hosting the Baronial Silent Auction, please contact and coordinate with him if you have items that you would like to donate.

There is an opportunity for a group to host a lunch fundraiser at our event to raise funds for their charity, activity, or cause. This will not be an official part of the event and the Barony will receive no funds from this fundraiser unless the group hosting it chooses to provide any. Likewise no baronial funds will be used for this fundraiser. If you or your group is interest in hosting a lunch fundraiser, please contact me.

In closing, I thank you for the opportunity to be in service as your Autocrat, but this is our event not mine, so my planning can only go as far as your support, service and input will allow. Please support in any way you are able to include coming out and celebrating our Baronial Birthday on 21 September 2019.

YIS,

Adelric Falke

☪ Spotlight: Get to know your Barony! ☪

Name: Finne Breth, AKA Fimbreth Rigsdatter, Canton of Sudentorre, Barony of Stierbach

How long have you played in the SCA?

While technically a member off and on for many years, only active since last June.

What do you wish you had known as a newcomer?

Large events can be daunting- it seems like everyone knows everyone else, it's hard to talk to strangers in a big group and it can be difficult to figure out where you fit in. But the thing is, they don't really know everyone, they're just talking to their friends- the ones they've met at local gatherings! So, the best thing a newcomer can do is to find a small local group of folks doing something that intrigues them and start there. In Stierbach for many folks it is Wolfhou's welcoming Sunday gatherings, but for me it was, and still is, Sudentorre's Scriptorium. About a year ago these started up, and I got to know people in a small, friendly setting. It has made a vast difference. I have made friends which are collaborating on other SCA adventures with me, I have a home in the wider Society world, and I have useful work to do when needed.

How about a mundane skill that you have brought to your SCA experience?

I am reasonably competent at sewing early period garments, although I had a higher opinion of my skill before I started frequenting SCA events (folk are amazingly talented)! Years ago when I stayed home with my children I had a small side business making early medieval clothing for Viking reenactors and pagans.

I am a former Park Ranger with the National Park Service as well, which may be what always has me looking for ways to get people into the woods!

Describe a time when "the dream" came alive for you.

When I slept on a sheepskin under a tarp in a fine misty rain with other Forester folk in shelters nearby in last spring, when I hiked through the 30 degree woods clad in 4 layers of wool and leather shoes with hardy fellow Saunterers last winter, when I cooked my son's birthday dinner earlier this year on a fire I lit with flint and steel, I was finally being a person I'd only gotten to pretend to be for years.

This is going to sound ridiculous but stick with me: one of the major reasons I have always loved playing rpg console or table-top games is so I can pretend I am traveling somewhere in a beautiful natural landscape using medieval gear.

You may understand what I mean, and if you do, know that the Kingdom of Atlantia Royal Forestry Guild provides a framework for doing just this sort of thing, within the SCA: <https://www.facebook.com/groups/AtlantiaRoyalForestryGuild/> . The Forestry Guild is medieval bushcraft, or rather, outdoor living skills from the late iron age through the medieval period. Foresters learn and teach skills such as primitive fire tending, cooking, shelters, herblore, making gear, all sorts of things. To get with other folks and learn the old ways of doing things, to help each other bring our fantasy selves and our real selves closer together, that's a piece of the Dream that sets me alight and I want to help it grow.

What has kept you active in the SCA?

The people I have met- folks who've only known me about a year but have opened their hearts and garages and homes. Community is so hard to find in these times and when you find it, not only should you not let go of it, you gotta do your best to help it strengthen and grow. We are lucky in Stierbach; there are generous people here who keep that in mind, and who really exemplify the idea of "chosen family."
