Ollam Fáilenn Chu ingen uí Fháeláin O.L.

Per pale vert and argent, two sea-wolves respectant counterchanged maintaining between them two tridents in saltire sable, a point pointed counterchanged.

How long have you played in the SCA?

Actually involved and playing, since about February 2014.

How did you discover the SCA?

I grew up outside Pennsic, but didn't really know even a rudimentary thing about it until college.

What is your best advice for newcomers?

Relax, be yourself, and if you find something interesting, ask questions. Usually if someone doesn't know, they know someone who does.

Describe a time when "the dream" came alive for you.

I have had a few, but probably one of my favorites was my first Pennsic, seeing the tents at night, wandering down by the lake seeing everything lit up and so pretty.

Can you give an example of a skill you've developed in the SCA?

I knew a little modern calligraphy, and I had painted a little in high school, but I didn't really develop them until the SCA.

Is there an activity or skill you have not yet tried, but want to?

If I had the lung capacity, I would love to learn glass blowing; but in the vein of what I already do, I would like to make parchment someday.

What has kept you active in the SCA?

My husband, my household, my friends, my art, and watching other people have fun and be creative and enjoy it so much.

Are there people who have become influences in your SCA? Why/how?

There are a LOT of people. Aine and Sigurd have guided me and inspired me to work harder and pay attention to the details. They in addition to Logan and Esa have become family. Logan and Esa have guided me and encouraged me. The Wymarcs have also guided and encouraged me, so have Mors, Esperanza, Ii and Abe, pretty much the whole Barony have.

During the pandemic how have you kept active in your SCA pursuits?

There are scrolls still being given out thanks in large part to the virtual courts, that keeps me busy as does going to an online scriptorium from time to time.
