Events Have Returned to Atlantia!

As the great plague has dragged on, we here in Atlantia and our fine Barony of Stierbach have seen a cautious return to in-person events throughout the Kingdom. Our very own Barony celebrated its 23rd Birthday in wet but joyous conditions on August 7, 2021. Stierbach's Festival of the Charging Bull was a rousing success! On that day we witnessed a myriad of activity from divine A&S displays to feats of Martial prowess on the field, and Archers so dedicated they did not let the driving rains keep them from the Tournament of the Lochmere Arrow – which went to the skilled archers from the Barony of Bright Hills – at least for now!

September, we joined the Barony of Storvik for Battle on the Bay. What a great day indeed! We celebrated the Investiture of the new Baronage for Storvik. Stierbach was represented by our own Baron Wulff and Baroness Genefe on hand to bring well-wishes and wisdom to the new Thaners of Storvik!

Finally the first weekend of October found us in the Barony of Bright Hills for Trial by Fire. A raucous day of archery to determine Atlantia's Royal Archer and delightful delicacies prepared by the wonderful cooks of Atlantia. Stierbach saw its own Master Grimm elevated to the Order of the Laurel. It is good to be amongst friends once again!
